

ISSUE 1 · JANUARY 2023

INDUSTRY CONNECT

Newsletter of Corporate Relations - IIT Delhi

Industry Day

The fourth edition of the flagship event Industry Day was organised by the Corporate Relations office on Saturday, December 10, 2022. Mr. K Ananth Krishnan, Executive Vice President and Chief Technology Officer, Tata Consultancy Services, inaugurated the daylong event along with the Director, IIT Delhi – Prof. Rangan Banerjee and Dean Corporate Relations & IRD, Prof. Sunil K Khare. Eminent luminaries from the field of Science and Technology and Industry leaders graced the event, which revolved around four thematic areas:

- Healthcare Technologies
- Electric Vehicle Research
- Communication technologies
- Sustainable energy, environment and climate change

Key highlights of the event:

- 80 cutting edge technologies developed by IIT Delhi were demonstrated
- Over 150 + industry relevant posters were showcased
- Footfall: 450+ industry participants, 200 faculty and staff, more than 700 students, 21 elite speakers from industry
- 18 companies sponsored this event

COLLABORATION

Samsung India Electronics Private Limited signed an agreement with Indian Institute of Technology Delhi to leverage research capabilities. This has been inked by Mr. Kyungyun Roo, Managing Director, Mobile R&D Division and Col. Naveen Gopal, COO, Foundation for Innovation and Technology Transfer. Through this collaboration the two entities will work more closely on some of the areas of mutual interest like health and wearable devices.

SONY

Global Vectra Helicorp Limited gave CSR funding towards its ongoing 'GVHL Scholarship' to support B.Tech students.

Corporate Relations office along with Foundation for Innovation and Technology Transfer signed a Joint Development Agreement with Sony India Software Center Private Limited to jointly explore and expand the industrial applications of Sony's existing and future technology needs relating to Intelligent hydroponics using Spresense. The principal investigators for this project are Prof. Supreet Singh Bahga and Prof. Shaurya Shriyam from the Department of Mechanical Engineering.

Kohler Co. is one of America's oldest and largest privately held companies comprising of nearly 35,000 associates and earning $7 billion in annual revenues. They signed a Master Consultancy Agreement with Corporate Relations, IIT Delhi, for different projects under this agreement.

KOHLER®

UFI Filters, a global leader in filtration technology and thermal management signed a Consultancy agreement with Prof. Bahni Ray, Department of Mechanical Engineering on Multiphase simulation of plate type heat exchangers with turbulators and dimples.

011 2659 6078

<https://www.linkedin.com/company/iitdcr/>

deancorp@iitd.ac.in

<https://twitter.com/iitdcr>